Overview

Driven by a commitment to justice, Janina joined the firm because of its dedication to protecting communities, the environment, and ensuring that powerful corporations are held accountable for their actions. She was born in and raised in the San Francisco Bay Area and has witnessed how environmental inequality affects communities. In her personal life, she makes a conscious effort to minimize her environmental impact and live sustainably.

Before joining Sher Edling LLP, Janina was a Project Assistant for a nationally known insurance law firm. She earned her B.A. in Political Science with a Pre-Law Concentration from California State University, East Bay, and her Paralegal Certificate from College of the Canyons.
